

8-Session Small-Group Supplemented Outlines

For use with Proverbial Kids® Lesson Plans for Parents

Session 3

Preparation: Preview all Proverbs verses for the upcoming session, asking God for insight in teaching.

See website for Power Point slides for ABC themes

Welcome/Cheers & Challenges—Welcome all! Invite participants to share successful, champion-building/challenging teaching moments from the past week of parenting, along with how they used the B Lesson Plan.

Prayer—Praise God for His great wisdom and ask that He grant wisdom to your small group participants.

Ice Breaker—Select one of the Opening Activities from the C plan and lead it with your small group.

\(The Tongue Twister activity is fun with adults, illustrating tongue control. Search for a challenging new twister online.\)

Refer to the C Lesson Plan. Share the introductory paragraph on page (v). Read aloud the Key Verse from the plan and call for volunteers to read aloud the Proverbs verses referenced at the bottom of the righthand page in the plan. Discuss each. Share the “Eve’s Choice” Bible Story at the top of the page and highlights from the other three stories.

For a comprehensive list of speech No-Nos, read aloud the Table of Contents in Deborah Smith Pegue’s best-selling book *30 Days to Taming the Tongue*.

Share your own experience related to this topic and read aloud the Character Book *Captain Curious and the Invisible Boundary Line. Coming soon to *proverbialkids.com* short story *Verbose Verbena’s Backfire Advice*.

Share the Warren Wiersbe quotation in the Author Notes at the end of *Captain Curious*.

HOMEWork for Parents—Read aloud the short assignment. Challenge participants to continue training champions this week using the C Lesson Plan.

Conclude— Close session with Prayer.
